G.W. BOT

Date de naissance : 1954
Lieu de résidence : Canberra

Née au Pakistan de parents australiens, G.W. BOT a vécu dans de nombreux pays jusqu'à l'âge de vingt ans, suivant son père qui était militaire. Elle étudia l'art à Londres, Paris et en Australie.

Vivant et travaillant à Canberra depuis 1985, elle a développé un attachement très fort à son territoire devenu le thème principal de son œuvre. A la manière des Aborigènes d'Australie, elle s'est attribuée un totem, celui du Wombat, ce petit animal vivant dans les environs de Canberra, dont on retrouve les premières références dans la littérature française sous le nom de « Grand Wam Bot », dont elle a tiré son nom d'artiste : G.W. BOT.

La technique de la linogravure, qu'elle a découverte à Londres, est restée son moyen d'expression favori. Elle a ainsi élaboré une calligraphie personnelle où sa vision onirique du territoire et son extrême sensibilité se confondent.
